

Application for Spokane Food Policy Council

Formed in 2013, the Spokane Food Policy Council (SFPC) is a group of individuals, organizations and businesses that strive to fulfill the following:

Mission: To advance policies and initiatives that foster a resilient food system in the Spokane area; one that is healthy and equitable for its citizens, economy and environment.

Vision: A thriving community that values and cultivates a viable, inclusive, and prosperous food system.

Applicant Contact Information

Name:

Email:

Phone Number:

Home Address:

City, State, Zip:

Business Name:

Business Address:

Business City, State, Zip:

Related Organizations and Civic Experience

List any community, civic, trade or professional organizations, projects or initiatives in which you have been active that might be relevant to the SFPC.

Related Education and/ or Training

List any education, degrees or training that would be relevant to the SFPC.

Why would you like to serve on the Spokane Food Policy Council?

Attach additional pages if necessary.

Please identify (by checking the boxes) which areas you have skills and knowledge in and what groups and/or populations do you represent.

- Accounting
- Marketing
- Farming
- Fundraising
- Legal/Law
- Ecology
- Culinary
- Nutrition
- Advocacy
- Education
- Business
- Diversity
- Government (city/county)
- Socioeconomic
- Food Safety
- Policy Development
- Nutrition / Health Care
- Education - K-12, Post-Secondary

Do you represent a specific group, population, neighborhood or age?

- Racial/Ethnic
- Cultural
- Age
- Neighborhood (Rural, Urban, Neighborhood Council)

Food System (which areas do represent)

- Production
- Processing
- Distribution
- Consumption
- Waste Recovery

An annual membership fee of $25 for an individual or $100 if representing an organization.

Please return completed applications via e-mail or a hard copy to:

foodpolicy.spokane@gmail.com

Spokane Food Policy Council
ATTN: Membership
P.O. Box 1785
Spokane, WA 99210